

Rix Dollar.

Head of Frederick W. 3^d

Legend

Friedr. Wilhelm III. König von Preussen

Reverse

With enclosing inscription: Ein Reichs-Thaler.
Legend: Vierzehn Ein Tonne Mark.

Thaler

Head of Frederick W. 3^d

Legend

same as Rix Dollar of 1814

Reverse

Eagle standing on globe - Legend: Ein Thaler

6th Piece

same as Thaler of 1814

Reverse

Head of Prussia

Legend

I x x x IV - Eine F. M. VI Einen Thaler.

Do Do Do

Thaler

same as Rix Dollar 1814

Reverse

Coat of Arms encircled by a wreath - Legend Ein Thaler x IV eine F. M.

Thaler

Head of King William

Legend

Wilhelm König von Preussen

Reverse

Two hands holding Eagle

Legend

x x x. Eine Brand Tön - Eine Vereins Thaler

1814

Georgia was quite full. Dances and I might have lost a nice girl if Mr Garber had not caught the horse the head and turned him against the horse and stopped him. The horse kicked until he broke both shafts.
Mrs Smith and I went down by rail till her husband. We met Capt. Elliott who took us down to the stop and back and then carried Mrs Smith home. Capt Smith let us the carriage and stable for home with Georgia but we have not heard how the dog got along. Oh

Jan 3rd

1823

Spent the forenoon shopping, about five o'clock went out to ride. Lucie got bally hurt yesterday, fell and cut the end of his leg very much off.
but it is getting along nicely much better than we expected. We are calling at Capt. Smiths. Georgia is getting along very nicely.

1825

Sunday 14th

1829

Went to Bath this morn to Emily Schuch.
and making the Emily Schuch school for the Christmas service. Should have gone this morn but Mrs McShall and her son had called and stayed until eight o'clock. We and Mrs Black passed the morn here.

Monday 15th

Went down street this morn this afternoon went out and made seven calls called at Mrs Cuts this morn. This afternoon at Mrs Banning, Mrs Peirce, Mrs Foster Mrs Fuller, Mrs Widney Mrs J. Parker and Mrs Elliott. This morn, George has been to the Mademoiselle John Poffy with the tray of 285 silver