Wed 4th

Went down street that were still afternoon went on headlocks around dinner at 12 o'clock. Mrs Black, the Whitman son and I, had a nice ride went to the top and looked down into the extinct crater, by Mrs Black got her face well scratched coming home by riding into an Algodora tree, after doing went down to see how badly she was hurt. There are a number of scratches but not deep ones.

Thurs 11th

My father Brother Ambrose would have been thirty years old today if he was living. He was in talk so soon from earth, it is hard to realize that he has gone never to return.
 It is all right in death but to our weak mortal sight it appears very hard but all things are subject to one who knows better than we and I will try to say that will be done. I C. M. about today.

Thurs 11th

Have had a rainy day. Ever has ever should to try and finish painting even if we do not get away until Monday.

Friday 12th

Have spent the morning the day down street doing errands. Have done the most of them now I believe. This are what I have done. 10 Black
