

Free
Hansard's City's

Schilling

Arms of the city
Reverse

1 Schilling Hamb. Conv.
One Schilling Hamburg Convention.

do do do
do do do

do do do

Hamburgers

Reverse

1 Schilling

Schilling

Same as Schilling

do do do
do do do

Dreiling

Same as Schilling

do do do

operation. We then went on to the Mission where we were cordially welcomed by Mr and Mrs Chalmer. We intended to return in the afternoon but were persuaded to remain until morning. It is very pleasant on this Island and I wish we could remain long enough to go around it. After tea we went to see Chalmer's George Lillie and I went to call on the garden and she went with us to visit Uncle Whithers' grave. He remembered him and saw him during his sickness his grave is under the mile speaking parishes of a large Native tribe. The girl of a child of the Missionary who took care of him, returned to Mrs Chalmer passed a pleasant day.

1857

1858 This morning had breakfast about half past

1851

10 and as soon as possible started

1854

hundred. Mr Chalmer came with us he had bought our Oregan. We took the ship on the shore with him, and we came along fine. We carried for more than three miles without stopping. It was only a narrow path through beautiful scrub that our shadows. The boat so we were completely shielded from the sun's rays. I enjoyed the ride very much indeed

1851

1851

and the ride was very happy. Mr

1855

Chalmer came on board with us and we took dinner. Mr Charlie came on in the next boat. Just before the Oregan, but when we had got as near to the Mission as we could go with the ship, we went

1851

1855

the Oregan into the boat and left goodbye to our Oregan and friends and started once more on our home road.

It seems very lonely without the Oregan. I almost regret selling it. This is Charles's birthday. I gave him a set of Brooks' Canvas Gun. His father gave a jack knife and a set of he also had a Dancing Jack. Mr Rhetts gave us for him before we left Honolulu.

Mr Chalmer gave him some shells a bottle of Camp Water by the natives on Manua Island.