Monday

Have been busy jacking away. Have jacked a Key of St. Chammanas. The last table from my room on deck has been moved Sat 22.58 below, and in room cleared out the Sat 16.05 are now nearly out of the S.E. Hall and going along slowly.

Tue 17

Have had a great breeze. I have been trying to use the Sewing Machine but it has not worked well so I had obliged to put it away and sew by hand. The day has seemed very long. Have had occasional showers. I have spent the time reading. I miss my (German) Knight more than I have ever done before.

Wed 17

I always forget it is Sunday night when it has not so much light could not sit to it. Have jacked the day working on my nightdress. George has been jacking his books here still put great noise and quite a dinner table.

Thurs 18

Have finished my night dress, and now commenced making sheets have cut off seven. George is still working. The noise is not quite so strong but still quite smooth. Working on by sheets but put them away this afternoon as I cannot use the machine while he is working as we have but one table that I can jacker the machine on, so have commenced a change.

Thurs 22

Have had a beautiful day. The first since leaving Honolulu. Some papers for afternoon caught me. The weather is just as pleasant.
