June 13th This morn. I began to mix paint to paint ship's but it soon became so hot weather 'could do nothing we have been rolling about badly. There is a very bad sea on. I have been working on my Sofa pillow 1.00

June 14th The weather is some better today so 1.00 The watch has been painting some it looks quite pleasant tonight and we July 34th hope for better weather tomorrow. I July 71.18 have been packing the more boxes 1.00 today in sealing up a little ship's sealing wax on the first and second finger of my right hand and burnt them so they are quite painful.

July 10th Have had a pleasant day and the painter has gone on finely. I have repacked my July 34.46 work and packed it over and have got July 34.48 what things we want to purchase.

1.00 There out where they will be safe when wanted. I can hardly realize that we July 34.18 are so near home and as we stand July 72.82 we now feel very anxious, not knowing what changes have taken place since we last heard from them. Probably not to borrow trouble but must in the 1.00 mercy of our Heaven & Father and try to realize that in all things will.

July 16th Have had a very rough day, but a July 34.41 great deal of Thimble & Lything and as July 70.46 there came a little jacking. I packed some of pillow
