

1855. Remarks on board Ship Nile of New Bedford.

H.	K.	H.	Course.	Winds.	Remarks.
4.	4.	4.	N.W.	N.W.	Thursday 7 th May.
2	4				Begins with a light breeze from the northwest and flying clouds, middle and latter part in pleasant breeze, all hauling sail out.
4	4
6	5
8	5
10	5
12	5
2	5
4	5
6	5
8	5
10	5
12	5

Long. Obs. at 5 P.M. 52° 28.
 -- Solar -- 52° 25.

Lat. No. 25° 16.

H.	K.	H.	Course.	Winds.	Remarks.
4.	4.	4.	N.W.	N.W.	Friday 8 th May.
2	5				Begins with a pleasant breeze from the northwest and fair weather, middle the wind freshens more to the south and flying clouds, latter part the wind some freshen took in the main sail and fly job.
4	4
6	4
8	4
10	4
12	4
2	4
4	4
6	4
8	4
10	4
12	4

H.	K.	H.
2	4
4	5
6	5
8	5
10	5
12	5
2	5
4	5
6	5
8	5
10	5
12	5

Saturday 9th May.

Begins with a light breeze from the northwest and flying clouds, at 7 P.M. tacked to the S.W. at 7 P.M. tacked to the S.W. at 5 A.M. tacked to the eastward again, had much variation in the weather throughout the day.
 Employed in getting up base, setting the rigging, knitting yarns, making sewing stuff etc.

Lat. No. 25° 28.

James Townsend Master

H.	K.	H.	Course.	Winds.	Remarks.
4.	4.	4.	N.W.	S.E.	Saturday 16 th April May.
2	6				Begins with a pleasant breeze from the southwest and flying clouds, middle the wind light with squalls of rain, latter part much as the first.
4	6
6	6
8	5
10	5
12	5
2	5
4	5
6	6
8	6
10	6
12	5

Long. Obs. at 2 P.M. 54° 18.

Lat. No. 5° 10.

H.	K.	H.	Course.	Winds.	Remarks.
4.	4.	4.	N.W.	S.E.	Sunday 17 th May.
2	5				Begins with a moderate breeze from the south and flying clouds with light squalls of rain, middle much the same, latter part cloudy the most of the time and a considerable rain.
4	6
6	6
8	5
10	5
12	5
2	5
4	5
6	5
8	6
10	6
12	5

Long. Obs. at 5 P.M. 54° 20

Lat. No. 5° 14

H.	K.	H.	Course.	Winds.	Remarks.
4.	4.	4.	N.W.	S.E.	Monday 18 th May.
2	5				Begins with a moderate breeze and flying clouds, all necessary sail set, middle quite fair, took in the M. T. gear & M. T. sail, tacking gear and set them again in the morning, latter part of the day light winds and rainy, broken clouds at the end of the day.
4	5
6	5
8	5
10	5
12	5
2	5
4	5
6	5
8	5
10	5
12	5

Long. Obs. at 5 P.M. 53° 5.

Lat. No. 2° 18.