

Ship Chile of San Bedra in the South
1836

Saturday July 16th Continues

Killed two spare boats and at Abundia found the whale in to the ship. At Chuchin in Port Cooper.

Sunday July 17th

First part light breeze from West and fair weather. At 2 P.M. out in our whale. At 4 began to boil. At 7 do. our boats came to the ship had killed and anchored a whale 12 miles off. At 8 the other two boats came to the ship with a small whale. Middle part calm.

Latter part ditto. At 4 P.M. 4 boats went to tow and two to whale. At 4.30 finished boiling so ends all well. At Chuchin in Port Cooper.

Monday July 18th

First part calm. At 4 P.M. got our whale to the Ship's Bay. At 7 do. our other two boats came to the ship. had killed and anchored him twenty miles off.

Middle part calm.

Latter part light breeze from N.W. and cloudy weather. At 4 P.M. our four boats went to tow their whale in. At 6 do began to eat on our whale. At Abundia got them both in so ends all well.

At Chuchin in Port Cooper.

Tuesday July 19th

First part brisk wind from N.E. and thick cloudy weather. At 5 P.M. began to boil. At 4 came the boat on shore to clear and brought off a cask.

Middle part strong wind from N.E. and cloudy weather.

Latter part strong wind from S.W. and cloudy weather. At 4 P.M. our four boats went for their whale. Employed in boiling and stowing down our oil. so ends all well.

at Chuchin in Port Cooper.

Pacific Ocean in the Whaling Voyage

Wednesday July 20th

First part brisk wind from S.E. and cloudy weather. At 3 P.M. the second whale came to the ship. and brought the news that the four boats had killed a two lightly barrel whale. and had no anchors got two for him. and he left the ship at 4.

Middle part brisk wind and cloudy weather.

Latter part strong wind from S.W. and thick rainy weather. At 4 P.M. the boats went for one of their whales. towed him within sight of the ship. but the weather but the weather coming on too bad to tow. left him and came on board. At Abundia so ends. employed in boiling and stowing down our oil.

At Chuchin in Port Cooper.

Thursday July 21st

First part brisk wind from S.W. and thick rainy weather. At 1 P.M. the boats went to tow but found the weather too rugged. At 3 P.M. finished boiling.

Middle part brisk wind from S.W. and thick weather. Latter part light breeze from South. and thick flying clouds with rain. At 4 P.M. our 5 boats went for their whale. At 8 they brought him to the ship. and 4 boats went for the other whale. At 9 began to eat at 10 finished so ends all well.

At Chuchin in Port Cooper.

Friday July 22nd

First part light breeze and showery weather. At Abundia began to boil. At 7 P.M. our boats brought their whale to the ship.

Middle part light breeze from S.W. and thick rainy weather. Employed in boiling our whale.

Latter part brisk wind from South and thick rainy weather. At 4 P.M. our boats left the ship for their whale. At 8 began to eat our whale. At 10.30 finished. Sent the head on shore and began to boil. so ends boats in sight towing.

At Chuchin in Port Cooper.