

Nov

Tuesday the 18th This Day Light winds from the SSW steering SSE employed in relashing the spare spars & sail in sight saw some finbacks and a school of Porpoises last part squalls so ends this 24 hours

Wednesday the 19th This Day light head winds employed in ships sail in sight so ends this 24 hours

Thursday the 20th This Day light head winds employed in making spanlines and spungarn sail in sight but not near enough to tell who she was saw some fin back ~~so~~ so ends this 24 hours

Friday the 21st This Day strong head winds starting by the wind with the Larber tacks aboard & sail in sight saw the spect of a finback we are employed in fitting the rigging and making spungarn so ends this 24th

Saturday the 22nd This Day strong winds from the E with squalls steering SSE with the Larber tacks aboard & sail on our weather beam saw some finbacks all the watch employed in doing nothing and no one to help us last part furled all three top gallantails and singled nailed the topsails so ends this 24th

Nov

Sunday the 23rd This Day strong winds from the ESE steering SSE it being secondary no work going on this day nothing in sight last part double reefed the topsails for we are beset with heavy squalls and rain so ends this 24 hours

Monday the 24th This Day heavy trade winds about ESE ship steering SSE under double reefed topsails nothing in sight last part heavy squalls we furled the main sail had a squally rain, tonight had a man hurt by a fall from the mizen while he was furling the spanker it was occasioned by the parting of the gasket so ends this 24th Nov

Tuesday the 25th This Day Heavy winds from the ESE steering SSE employed in make ing sinuat nothing seen this Day no mast heads we are under double reefed top sails spanker fore and mizen top mast stay sails so ends this 24 hours

Wednesday the 26th This Day strong winds from the E double reefed top sails steering SSE employed in making spungarn and sinuat set up the main top gallant and royal back stays saw a cow fish & a sail on our bow so ends this 24 hours