

March

Hans post Christum natum 1846

Sunday the 1st. The first part of this 24 hours light airs from the WNW at 8 PM spoke the ship Phoenix of Liverpool the middle part light winds from the WSW. lowered for blackfish without success.

Monday the 2^d. The first part of this 24 hours light winds from SW by W steering NW by W at 4 PM lowered for blackfish without success. The middle part light winds from SSW the latter the same. Employed in breaking out and stowing down at 5 PM sent up the main roy al yard and bent the sail.

Lat 37, 09

Tuesday the 3rd. The first part of this 24 hours light winds from the WSW heading NW by W. The middle and latter part light airs and calm. Employed in breaking out the butt cask staves, stowing them betwixt decks.

Wednesday the 4th. The first part of this 24 hours fine breeze from the SW by W heading NW by W the middle part the same, the latter light airs. All hands employed in breaking out and stowing down.

Lat 35, 41

Thursday the 5th. The first part of this 24 hours light winds from the W. heading NW by W. All hands employed in stowing off at 6 PM got done. The middle part light winds from SW steering NW by W. The latter light winds from the W. employed in cleaning the

Lat 34, 00 Long 83, 40

Friday the 6th. The first part of this 24 hours light airs from the WSW at 3 PM saw sperm whales lowered without success at 8 PM became calm the middle part calm at 8 PM light airs from SW by W heading NW. Employed in washing ship.

Lat 33, 24 Long 83, 40

March

A. 1846

Saturday the 7th. The first part of this 24 hours light airs from the SW steering NW by W. The middle part light winds from the South. The latter the same. Set studding sails.

Sunday the 8th. The first part of this 24 hours light airs of SSE steering NW by W from 2 PM till 12 calm.

Monday the 9th. The first part of this 24 hours calm at 2 PM light airs from the W heading NNW. The middle part light winds heading N. at the wind at 9 PM the wind veered to the NNW took ship to the West at 10 PM the wind veered to the WSW took ship to the North.

Lat 31, 57

Tuesday the 10th. The first part of this 24 hours light winds from the WSW heading on the Northern tack. The middle part the same at 4 PM the wind veered to the NNW took ship to the West.

Wednesday the 11th. The first part of this 24 hours fine breeze from the NW by W at 5 PM took ship to the NE, the middle part heading NE by N the latter NE by E wind light from NW.

Lat 29, 22

Thursday the 12th. The first part of this 24 hours light winds from the WSW heading N. the middle part the same the latter the wind strong from the West.

Friday the 13th. The first part of this 24 hours fine breeze from the NW by W heading on the Southern tack at 5 PM saw sperm whales lowered without success at 8 PM too high night at 7 PM took ship to the N. The middle part the wind veered to the SW at 4 to SE set studding sails.