

September, 1846

Thurs the 24th strong breeze steering to the westward saw a ship pass to the leeward of us steering east N. E. and some few birds middle and last part very strong breeze reefed our main top gallant sail at 12. 11 clock struck ship at 1. 30. 56 we were round at 5. P. M. saw a large bruch.

Lat 4. 51. North
Fri the 25th the first part fine breeze steering to the eastward saw some few birds and a school of Porpoises middle and last part good breeze after 4. P. M. brook out the after hole for meat flour and molasses so goes the day.

Lat 3. 41 North.

Sat the 26th the first part fine breeze steering to the southward saw some few birds middle and last part strong breeze employed in ship's duty cut off the foot of the mixer royal mast about 18 inches so goes the day.

Lat 1. 59 North.

Sun the 27th the first part good breeze steering to south saw some large bruch middle part strong breeze took in the flying jib last part fine breeze set the flying jib again steering to the south.

Lat 0. 43 south.

September, 1846

Monday the 28th the first part strong breeze from the S. E. steering to the south middle and last part the same saw a large shark we are employed in ship's duty a small nothing remarkable then 24 hours.

Lat 3. 42 South

Tues the 29th the first part strong breeze from the S. E. steering S. by W. middle and last part the same employed in setting up rigging and brook out the main hatch for water saw nothing remarkable these 24 hours.

Thurs the 30th the first part strong breeze from the S. E. by E. steering S. by W. middle and last part the same saw nothing through the large brook out the starboard side of the after hole and took all the meat on deck coopers it and stowed it back again so goes