

February 1847

and then went on shore again so goes

Frid the 19th the Capt of the port came on board with 9 soldiers to put the men on duty they talked awhile the Capt of the port the Consul and Capt Wing and then discharged 2 of the men that was by the cruise and then went on shore so goes

Sat the 20th sent 3 of the men on shore in irons and put the other 2 in irons and put them in the main hatch way we shipped 3 men here at 2 P.M. weighed anchor and stood for sea at we have got Capt Rogers on board as passenger at 5 P.M. took the 2 men and put them in the rigging and gave them 38 lashes apiece and then put them below in irons again steering N.W. with a good strong breeze so goes

Sun the 21st a strong breeze from the south steering N.E. last part laying of and on at Valparaiso

Mon the 22nd this morning we were in of the harbour the Capt went on shore and stayed till night left our passengers got 50 lbs of salt meat and a quarter of fresh shipped one man and stood for sea put the 2 men on duty again and now we have started for the Sandwich Islands so goes

February 1847

Tues the 23rd a strong breeze with all sail steering N.W. By W saw a plenty of hump and fin backs

Wednes the 24th a strong breeze from the south steering N.W. By W

Thurs the 25th a light breeze from the S.E. steering N.W. By W saw black fish going quick to the windward employed in mending sails so goes

Frid the 26th a light breeze from the S.E. saw black fish lowered and got 2 S.W. Boats the S.B. turned up two and lost them both so goes the day

Sat the 27th a light breeze from the S.E. steering N.W. By W with ~~but~~ still sails both sides saw nothing through the day

Sun the 28th fine weather light wind from the S.E. steering N.W. By W nothing in sight there 24 hours so goes the