

2 April, 1847

Thurs the 22nd a gentle breeze with all sail spread saw nothing Lat 28.00. North.

Fri the 23rd first part gentle breeze saw nothing middle part the same last part squally double reef the top sails so ended the day

Sat the 24th a light breeze steering by the wind saw nothing

Sunday the 25th a light breeze from the N.W. & steering by the wind the last part the wind hauling to the E so we reef the ship N.W. & saw nothing Lat 32.20. North.

Mon the 26th a strong breeze steering N.W. & saw nothing to day.

Tues the 27th a strong breeze from the E.N.E. steering N.W. & under single reef top sails and main top gallant sail saw a sail this morning and top mast stay sails running for us we speak and gained with her it proved to be the Isaac Howland of New Bedford we caught 2 Porpoises so goes

2 April, 1847

Wedns the 28th a strong breeze steering N.W. & sail in sight so goes

Thurs the 29th a strong breeze steering N.W. & gained all day with the Isaac Howland saw nothing to day.

Fri the 30th a strong breeze steering N.W. & employed in making new davits for the Whist and Bow boats the Isaac in sight of us.