

March 1848.

Thurs the 21st a light breeze steering by the wind I saw sperm whales and lowered forthum the S Boat struck two but the iron saw the rest of the whales was full of religion so we could not catch

Thurs the 22nd a fine breeze steering by the wind employed in fitting ship 1 sail in sight saw a school of killers so goes made a new sparker boom

Thurs the 23rd a light breeze steering by the wind employed in fitting rigging, saw nothing to day

Frid the 24th a light breeze steering by the wind heading S & E employed in breaking out and stowing of between decks 1 sail in sight standing South

Sat the 25th a light breeze from the S steering by the wind employed in fitting ship

Sunday the 26th a light breeze from the E steering by the wind heading N W & saw some grampuses so goes the time

March 1848.

Spent the 27th a light breeze steering by the wind employed in fitting rigging saw nothing to day

Thurs the 28th a light breeze steering by the wind employed in fitting rigging set up the main rigging saw a sail at 11 AM standing south last part int up the fore royal mast

Thurs the 29th a strong breeze steering by the wind employed in fitting the rigging 9C saw two brigs standing S & last part int. hole.

Thurs the 30th a light breeze steering N W. employed in fitting ship at 1 P.M. saw the land saw a plenty fishing boats

Fri the 31st the last day of march 1848 a light breeze laying of and on at the noble port of and received on board about 100 sticks of wood and about 500 oranges and then started again