

Wed Aug 19th 1844,
Lat. 40.00 Lon. 39.50
Commences by blowing
very heavy from the E ship under double reefed topsails at about 8 o'clock A.M. we sighted a whaler we were going from him at the time so we tacked ship and at 10 o'clock A.M. he ran across our stern it proved to be the Bark Lydia Capt Pharo.

Capt Pease invited him to come on board he did so. and Mr.
Waldron, our mate, and

myself went on board the Lydia. She had taken nothing 2 mo. ant she had seen the Andrew Dickens a few weeks ago he had taken nothing on this ground. She had also seen the Boston Brig Rosa Baker she had taken 25 bbls sp oil.
He stayed on board
all day to dinner and supper and then came on board our own
ship which is a better one.

It has been blowing
heavy all day with a heavy sea on
