

Wed. Sept 16th 1874.

Fayal Island
Commences with a light breeze from
the S.W. The Ohio
arrived here this morning. Capt Pease was ashore and trying to ship Mr Perry for 3rd mate. but could not. I was with him all day and at 4 o'clock he said, good bye, to me for good as I will not see him
again this voyage
until he comes home

Thurs. Sept 17th 1874

Fayal Island.
Commences with a good breeze from the N. this morning a ~~Span~~ Foreigner bark arrived. In the afternoon Capt
Hoodbury, Mr Waldron & myself got a
open hack and drove about 5 miles
to a place called Castello Blanco. so named on account
of a piece of land
resembling a castle
is situated there.