

Wednesday Sept 30th 1874.
Fajal Island.
commences with a light breeze from the
so through the day.
At about 6 o'clock
Mr. Malden went on board bark Kate Williams for she was to sail tonight early
but it was 2 o'clock at night when she left. At sundown I went on board of The Ocean and stayed all night for she was to lay off & on all night.

Thurs. Oct. 1st 1874.
Fajal Island.
commences with a
a light breeze from the S.W. & continued
so through the day.
At 7 o'clock I left the ship to come a shore after a good night's rest. Capt. Pease got hold of a good
cooper he could have
by smuggling him off
So at 4 o'clock I said
good bye and he left and got his cooper & carpenter into the boat around the point
