

Mon Oct 13th 1874.

Fayal Island
Commerce with a light breeze from the N. and contrary wind so, through the day. At about 2 o'clock a Bark hove in sight. I put a glass on her and told them that it was the George & Susan
and it was, for Capt. Hayes came ashore at about 3 o'clock.
Had nothing
nor seen nothing but a porpoise turtle & Albatross

Tues. Oct. 13th 1874.

Fayal Island
Commerce with a tip top sailing breeze from the N.E. and we intended to sail
today but Mrs Dabney
could not get ready
so we hope to go tomorrow morning. My things are all packed up and I am ready to go.
I have seen all of Fayal. I want to still it is a pleasant place to stay a short time in
