Fayal Island
Commences with a strong breeze from the N.W. 4 or 5 to sail today so at half past 11 I said good bye to Capt Cornell Capt Dyer & Howland
and went on board with Capt Lakee at 72^{ms} Mr Dabney's family came on board and stayed a short time
then said good bye
to those that were coming which were Mrs John Dabney & two daughters and one son also Mr Samuel Dabney's sons At about 10 o'clock we got under weigh for New Bedford and passed a whaler bound in, call it the Falcon. In the evening we were out of sight of the Island About 8 o'clock we had a squall strike

here which heeled
her over a good deal
and parted the fore
topmast back stay
but it soon passed
over.
