

Thurs. Oct 15th 18th / 24.
Lat 38.00 N. Lon. 30.20 W.
Commences with a good breeze from the N. but soon dies away to a calm and continues
so up to 8 o'clock P.M.
when a strong breeze
comes at from the West and continues
so through the night.
This is my first
whole day on board
the Bark Tyor.
She seems to be a good vessel but she is cranky more so than I like.

Fri. Oct 16th 18th / 24
Lat. 38.25 Lon 32.08
Commences with a strong breeze from the West and continues so through the day up to 8 o'clock P.M.
when a sudden squall
killed the wind almost instantly. It has been very rough
all day and all the passengers have been sick except Mrs Dabney
Mr Harbert & myself.
We are all looking for an Easterly wind
and plenty of it.
