Barq Ocean of Sandwich

Sunday Jan 13th

Begins with moderate trades and fine w. Employed P.M. in sight of the Coast one sail in sight to the SE middle part Squally at Bassein at 4 heavy Squall Baloon towards the land at day light spoke the Schooner E Peterson had lost both anchors in the late gale at 8 AM came to anchor in Cannon Bay found several whales lying there they reported a short time ago of a heavy blow South Westerly in from Sea and that the Mountain Peony of Boston had foundered while at anchor and many men lost from unknown to us winds from the North & East and fine weather the Remarks Contain thirty Six hours

Monday Jan 14th

Begins with moderate trades and fine w. at daylight lowered the boat and pulled to the Bay at night Strong winds from the South with thunder and lightning Sent down top G. Yd and let go the second anchor Ends more so

Tuesday Jan 15th

At this day light winds from the west and fine weather Boat Cruising the Bay at 8 AM the John & Elizabeth Boats got a Whale also all the Capts came together and agreed to run the Remainder of the Season

Wednesday Jan 16th

At this day light trades and fine weather at night Stormy Cloudy with lightning over the land this day Picked up two dead Bodys & Buried them

Thursday Jan 17th

Begins with the Strong Trades and at 6 heavy Squall steering from the NW middle and latter part fine weather

Friday Jan 18th

At this day fine trades and pleasant weather

at Cintra Bay Affrica 1845

Saturday Jan 19th

Begins with Strong Trades and Cloudy two Coopers employed on casks and went out to take a look Boats from the other Ships Cruising Bay middle and latter part weather much the Same

Sunday Jan 20th

At this day Strong Trades and part of the 1st P.M. Saw a Whale lowered the Boats Chased till Dark

Monday Jan 21st

At this day Strong Trades and Smokey Picked Round the Bay but saw nothing

Tuesday Jan 22d

At this day Strong Trades and thick weather part of the day in the morning in the afternoon Leonard and Cooper came off

Wednesday Jan 23d

At this day trades moderate and the weather fine Saw nothing

Thursday Jan 24th

At this day fine weather Saw nothing

Friday Jan 25th

At this day fine trades and pleasant

Saturday Jan 26th

At this day fine trades and pleasant at 6 PM the Rothschild came in and anchored

Sunday Jan 27th

At this day fine trades and pleasant

Monday Jan 28th

At this day moderate and fine

Tuesday Jan 29th

At this day fine trades and pleasant at 6 PM got trades away and steered east