

Schr. Aurora

Thursday Jan. 17th 1884

Breeze and sea with moderate breeze from the Eastward steering full and by on the Port tack.

No Obs

Friday Jan. 18th

All these 24 hours moderate breeze from the Eastward steering full and by on the Port tack, at 7 A.M. saw two large sperm whales lowered two boats and chased whales ship.

Leat. 26.10

Long. 36.20

Saturday Jan. 19th

Breeze with moderate Easterly wind chasing whales, at 1 P.M. both boats struck together, S.B. iron down, and got one to the S.B. got him alongside and made preparations for cutting, latter part fine weather employed cutting.

Leat. 28.26

Long. 36.36

Sunday Jan. 20th

Breeze with moderate wind to the Eastward employed cutting and boiling.

Leat. 28.31

Monday Jan. 21st

First and middle part fine weather employed boiling and finished cutting last part blowing from all ways with much rain cooled down.

No Observations

Tuesday Jan. 22nd

Breeze with a moderate gale of wind and rain, at 4 P.M. cleared up, started fires latter part blowing heavy from N.W. going on Port tack boiling and slowing down.

Leat
Long.

Cruising in South Atlantic

Wednesday Jan. 23^d 1884

All these 24 hours blowing heavy from the Eastward going to on the S. tack, finished boiling and slowing down, last part breaking out provisions.

No Obs

Thursday Jan. 24th

First and middle part blowing heavy from the Eastward, going to on the S. tack, latter part moderate from sea, standing on Northern tack, seriously employed.

Leat. 24.47

Long. 37.31

Friday Jan. 25th

All these 24 hours moderate breeze from the N.E. steering full and by on the Port tack, seriously employed in ship duty.

Leat. 25.23

Long. 36.48

Saturday Jan. 26th

All these 24 hours same as preceding ones, cruising by the wind first part, last part steering South, employed breaking out water and provisions.

Leat. 26.00

Long. 36.00

Sunday Jan. 27th

First and middle part moderate from N.E. cruising full and by last part blowing strong from N.E. steering S.W. passed a Brig named the Doultonia.

Leat. 26.06

Long. 36.10

Monday Jan. 28th

All these 24 hours blowing a moderate gale from the N. going to on both tacks, last part raining some, a whaling Bk in sight.

No Observations

S.B. 65-116
Sperm Whales