

Schr. Aurora.

Monday, May, 19th 1884
Began with strong trades at 4 P.M.
ran the Island of Barbados run untill midnight then hoisted and lay untill daylight, then left off and at 11 A.M. anchored in Carlisle Bay, in five fathoms of water.

Tuesday, May, 20th
Lying at anchor, employed variously took nine seamen ashore that we got from St. Michaels, to see the shipping articles, which only two would agree to do, so we were obliged to let them go. Last part employed pumping out salt water preparatory to taking in fresh water, one of the seamen returned having concluded to ship.

Wednesday, May, 21st
Lying at anchor, employed painting
the outside of the vessel. Discharged three seamen, whose time was up.

Thursday, May 22nd
Lying at anchor, employed painting

Friday, May, 23rd
Lying at anchor employed painting weather
squally and rainy.

Saturday, May, 24th Lying at anchor employed taking in water and stowing off ~~water~~ the hold.

Sunday, May, 25th
All hands on shore for liberty.

Monday, May 26th
Employed taking water and provisions

Lying at Barbados

Tuesday, May, 27th 1884.
Lying at anchor taking water and provisions, I. made on liberty

Wednesday, May, 28th Lying at anchor taking in wood & coal and stowing the hold, Port water on liberty, one of the Starboard water deserted.

Thursday, May 29th
Lying at anchor, fine weather
employed getting wood and stowing off
the hold, water all returned but 3rd water and lost to crew.

Friday, May, 30th
Lying at anchor, employed setting up the head, stows, discharged the 3rd water and shipped 4 seamen.

Saturday, May 31st
Lying at anchor taking in recruits
shipped 4 more seamen

Sunday, June, 1st 1884
Lying at anchor, ready for sea.

Monday, June, 2nd
at daylight - weighed anchor and sail from Barbados five weather with moderate - trades.

Lat. 13.29
Long.
Tuesday June 3rd
All these 24 hours moderate trades
steering full and by to the N. by E.

Lat. 14.42
Long. 59.07
Wednesday June 4th
All these 24 hours moderate trades
steering N. by, East.

Lat. 15.42
Long. 58.53