

Charlton Whales

Sunday November 1st 1868 Comes in with strong gales from the N and squalls of rain Ship by the wind to the N and W. under easy sail finished boiling cooled down and cleared up the decks - Whales turning up on deck 22 bbls. - In the night saw a sail steering to the W. this morn at 4 saw sail steering to the E - nothing in sight all day. Lat at merid 41.00 Long by Chron. 45.50

Monday Nov. 2nd Comes in with strong breezes from the N.E. and hazy weather Ship by the wind on different tacks cruising - One sail the schooner Morris in sight boiling at 8 saw sperm Whales breaching afterward saw them spout but being rough lost the run of them - at 9 P.M. saw other spouts but could not make them out - a strong gale all the P.M. and night wind hauling to the E with rain Lat at merid 40.57 Long by Chron. 45.24

Tuesday Nov. 3rd 1868 Comes in with a gale of wind from the E and accompanied with rain - Ship by the wind to the S.E. going to under lower maintopsail - nothing in sight all day - at 12 moderate wind hauling to the S.E. at 2 left ship off for the Western Islands - wind at sundown N.W. and quite moderate - all sail on ship Lat at merid 40.36
Long by Chron. 44.58

Wednesday Nov. 4th Comes in with moderate winds from N.W. and overcast looking much like rain Ship steering to S.E. per compass with all sail out. nothing in sight.
Lat at merid 41.12
Long by Chron. 43.12

Thursday Nov. 5th First part moderate breeze with fog from the N. Ship steering to S.E. During the last 24 hours the wind has been once around the compass. bringing rain from the N. and E. and S.E. without parted nearly all night - saw one sail today steering to the E Lat 41.15 Long 41.23

Left off the Trawl