

Wednesday Nov. 25th

Comes in with strong gales from W of W and squally weather. Ship cruising off to the N of Fayal - at 9 P.M. saw sperm Whales but blowing heavy could not get up to them to lower - in P.M. working up for the passage - all night off and on Thursday Nov. 26th

Comes in with strong gales from the S and squally weather. Ship lying off and on in the passage - at night went on board - kept ship off to the north and have to some three miles from the north head

Friday Nov. 27th

Comes in with strong breezes from the S. Ship by cruising to the N of Fayal. Saw ship from Morris and a hermaphrodite Brig working up for the passage - saw one sail come out steering to the W. suppose it to be the Portuguese Brig Julia on a cruise whaling - at Prinsdore blowing quite heavy - nothing in sight but the different islands.

Saturday Nov. 28th 1868

Comes in with strong breezes from S.W. and course rainy weather. Ship under easy sail off to the N of Fayal. Saw one steamer working up for Fayal - nothing more in sight all day

Sunday Nov. 29th

Comes in with strong breezes from the W. and thick hazy weather. Ship working up for the passage of Fayal in P.M. quite moderate and quite clear - at 4 P.M. went on shore at Fayal.

Monday Nov. 30th

Comes in with moderate breezes from the S.W. Ship lying off and on for the night - at 12 came on board - made sail and kept ship off down south side of Pic for the Island of Teneriffe of the Canaries - all night strong breezes from the S.W.

Tuesday Nov. Dec. 1st

All these 24 hours fresh breezes from the S.W. and hazy weather. Ship steering S.E. per compass.