

JULY

Thursday the 6

20 32
170 50

First part light air and calm heading hathaway at 4 P.M. lowered a boat and secured the current setting S.W. 1 1/2 knots. Middle part calm at daylight a brisk breeze heading E. East by N all sail out employed getting the rigging saw trampasses and porpoises

Friday the 7th

1 20
170 05

First part brisk breeze all sail out heading E. East by N. Middle part strong breeze all sail out latter part do. Saw 1 seal off the lee beam 10 ends nothing in sight Saw a few Trampasses

Saturday the 8th

25 miles S
169 55

First part of them 24 hours strong breeze all sail out steering by to the East Middle part much the same at daylight off N. East tacked ship heading S. East 10 ends employed getting up here

Sunday the 9th

15 N
170 48
170 46

First part of them 24 hours hours gentle breeze at 1 P.M. tacked ship heading E. East all sail out Middle part strong breeze heading E. East latter part fine and moderate plenty of porpoises in sight

Monday the 10th

55 S
170

First part of them 24 hours strong breeze at 1 P.M. tacked ship heading S. East Middle part tacked ship to the North brisk breeze at daylight saw a seal off our lee we standing Southward saw a jumper

Tuesday the 11th

49 S
170 89

First part brisk breeze all sail out heading to the North Middle part brisk breeze at sunset tacked Southward at daylight strong breeze and a heavy sea took in all the sail at 6 P.M. saw 2 sperm whales lowered 4 boats the whales started quick to windward could not get past

JULY

Wednesday the 12th

$$$ 483,267.40 9,7216

1 08
170 55

First part of them 24 hours strong breeze at 3 P.M. tacked Southward under whole top sails and courses a sea seen on at 2 P.M. more ship to the South at daylight saw a ship to the leeward latter part saw porpoises and black fish So ends our Stewart is very sick and has been this week

Thursday the 13th

2 05
170 58

First part of them 24 hours moderate breeze at 1 P.M. tacked ship to the North saw a ship at 4 P.M. took the Cambridge Harding had taken 3 small whales last Saturday at 7 P.M. tacked ship heading up S. East by East with brisk breeze all sail out latter part do. 10 ends nothing in sight

4 6 5 2

Friday the 14th

4 6 4 2 3 54

3 10 8
170 35

First part of them 24 hours moderate breeze all sail out heading S. East by East most of the time Middle part brisk breeze at daylight more moderate all sail out heading up South East at 8 P.M. saw on Island off the lee beam Dist 15 miles 10 ends at noon wind light

Saturday the 15th

2 53
170 30

First part of them 24 hours light baffling winds from the East at 3 P.M. came on squally more ship heading up N. East all sail out Middle part moderate and some rain squalls up N. East and off to during the night latter part light baffling winds nothing in sight employed setting up the main top mast rigging 10 ends

Sunday the 16th

2 18
170 20

First part of them 24 hours light air from the East all sail out heading up N. East. Some squalls of rain Middle part light air latter part very squally and wind very unsteady up East and off North nothing in sight

Monday the 17th

1 30
169 57

First part of them 24 hours moderate breeze and very squally heading from N. East to East all sail out saw 2 schools of porpoises Middle part moderate and some squalls of rain latter part fine weather gentle breeze heading up N. East employed repairing meat saw a great number of porpoises