

Wednesday May ^{the} 10 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Strong Breezes from the S.E. heading Westward at 7 O'clock Shorten Sail Spoke the Barque Brunett of Falmouth Capt Pool 5 Day Out No Oil

Middle Part the same at

10 Done Ship w. Eastward

Latter Part Strong

Breezes at 5 maid Wind Sw Standing w. West at 8 O'clock Wore Ship Spoke at 9 O'clock Brigg Lagrange of Rochester Daggett 20 Day Out 50 Hbls of Oil Gamb a few Hours with the same S. Ends these 24 Hours

Lat By Ob 36.21

Long By Chronometer On board the Orion at 4 O'clock P.M.

71.64

On board the Lagrange at 4 O'clock 72.11

Thursday May ^{the} 11 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Strong Gales from the S.W. and a Bad Sea On heading to the S Eastward Saw the Barque Brunett to Leeward at 4 more moderate

Middle Part

Calm

Latter Part Light breeze and Cloudy Wind w. East at 5 maid Sails at 8 O'clock Struck for the Stream found it Run E and W S. Ends these 24 Hours

Lat By Ob D.R. 36.28

Long By Chronometer 12

at 4 O'clock P.M. 71.55

Friday May ^{the} 12 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Strong Gales and a Bad Sea On Wind from the East Steaming West at 4 more moderate at 7 O'clock Spoke the Lagrange Daggett Brunett Pool Shorten Sail

Middle Part Squally

Latter Part Light air of Wind from the S.W. heading to the West Saw several Sails 4 Gramphuses slow and then a Porpoise S. Ends these 24 Hours

Lat By Ob 36.45

Long By Chronometer 13 at 4 O'clock P.M. 73.40

Saturday May ^{the} 13 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Light air of Winds from the S.W. heading to the West at 4 O'clock Shorten Sail

Middle Part Calm

Latter Part at 5 O'clock maid Sails Light Winds Saw several Sails S. Ends these 24 Hours

Lat By Ob 36.57

Long By Chronometer 14 at 5 O'clock P.M. 72.50