

Saturday July 1st 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Light
Breezes from the Westward and Heavy Head
RNB Middle Part Wind SW

Latter Part Wind W and Rainy
Thermometer 72° W S. Ends these 24 Hours
Variation 1/4 Points Lat By DR 37.27
Westerly Long By DR 50.10
1 Knot current Long By Chronometer the 2 at 4 O'clock P.M.
RNB 51 13

Sunday July 2nd 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Breeze
Breezes from the Westward Headed to the ENE

South Middle Part Part Wind to the Latter Part Wind the Same and Pleasant Saw 2 Sailed to the South

With their Starboard Jacks On Board This Day
I went On Deck the first time since I was hurt But the Light is very bad at present for my Eyes S. Ends these 24 Hours

Thermometer 70 Lat By DR 38 01
Variation 1 Point Long By DR 48.19
Westerly Long By Chronometer the 3
1 Knot current at 5 O'clock P.M. 49.48
RNB

Monday July 3rd 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Light Breezes from North with Parting Clouds Headed ENE

Middle Part Part Wind Calm Latter Part

Light Breezes from the Westward Headed ENE

Saw a Brigg astern Steaming S.W. and a Brigg On our Lee Beam Steaming S.W. Ends Pleasant
Thermometer 71° W Variation 1 Point Lat By DR 38 43 W
1 Knot current Westerly Long By DR 47.39 W
RNB Long By Chronometer the 4 at 4 O'clock P.M. 48 26 W

Tuesday July 4th 1837

Commencement of these 24 Hours Pleasant and Moderate Breezes at 4 O'clock Saw a Brigg
Standing to the Westward

Middle Part More moderate and Cloudy
Wind from WSW to ENE

Latter Part Wind and Weather the Same at 10 O'clock Jack Ship S. Ends
these 24 Hours Lat By DR 38.40
Thermometer 69° W Long By DR 45.45 W
1 Knot current Long By Chronometer the 5 at Variation 1 Point 5 O'clock P.M. 46.46
Westerly