

Tuesday 17th May.
Light wind, all sails out, saw one finback
set up the mizzen topmast, at three palm
so ends this day.

Thursday 18th May.
Land in sight, all sails out, light wind,
close to it, bent the foresail so ends this day.

Friday 19th May.
Mending the foretop sail, light wind one sail
in sight and land so ends this day.

Saturday 20th May.
Land in sight, light wind stowed oil down
this morning, got through at noon, so ends this day.

Sunday 21st May.
Ship running close to the land, light wind
all sails out so ends this day.

Monday 22nd May.
All sails out, light wind running close to the land, so ends this day.

Tuesday 23rd May.
Clearing for Bourbon, light wind, close to it sundown, so ends this day.

Wednesday 24th May.
Light wind, all sails out, came to the land
at noon but came on to blow hard and did not go in, shorten sails, so ends this day.

Thursday 25th May.
Light wind ~~wanted~~ to get in but cannot laying off and on for the night, saw blowfish today all hands employed in ship duty so ends this day.

Lat 21.
East side

B O U R B O N

Long 55.

People 24,000

Friday 26th May.
Light wind came to anchor this forenoon
at the Isle of Bourbon sent old man on shore ready for matter at sundown boat went on shore, had ~~some~~ letters three pretty good news from home so ends this day.

Saturday 27th May.
Lying in the Island of Reunion went on shore today,
had a girl to go see, four ships in here.
so ends this day.

Sunday 28th May.
Larbert watch on shore for liberty one ship
came in today plenty fish and meat, here
looks like rain tonight so ends this day.

Monday 29th May.
Strong breeze lying in Port so ends this day

Tuesday 30th May.
Send Larbert watch on shore for liberty
so ends this day

Wednesday 31st May.
Send the watch on liberty so ends this day

Thursday 1st June
Heavy ~~rain~~ wind today, mail comes in, ready to go to sea, so ends this day.

Friday 2nd May.
Heavy wind, had two tons of potatoes one ton onions heard that Pioncere in Mauritius 22 months out, had liberty one day, Atlantic arrived in Bourbon to get meat, so ends this day.