

Friday 29th Dec: 71.

Light wind all sail out broke out meat one sail and two finbacks insight running off at sun set under short sail so ends this day.

* Saturday 31st Dec:

Light wind today all sail out raised sperm whales and lowered after them had two, cut in one of them and started the try works.

* Saturday 31st Dec:

Light wind and raining all day all sail out running off one finback insight shorten sail at sun down all well so ends this day.

Monday 1st of January 1842.

Strong wind today cutting and trying out all in at sun down all well so ends this day.

Tuesday 2nd Jan:

Strong wind and raining today trying out all well so ends this day.

Wednesday 3rd January.

Strong wind trying out raised a whale lowered three boats and the Mate boat had one had him along side at sun down all well so ends this day.

L.B.

Thursday 4th Jan:

Strong wind cool down today and commence to cut, but we had to stop in account of being rugged all well so ends this day.

Friday 5th Jan:

Strong wind today, we cut in the whale body today and let the head go and started the works so ends this day.

Saturday 6th Jan:

Light wind under short sail all day, trying but all well shorten sail at sun down so ends this day.

Sunday 7th of January 1842.

Light wind today cool down the works this morning raised sperm whales about three o'clock lowered all boats Carbord Boat had one and got him along side at sun set all well so ends this day.

Monday 8th January.

Light wind commence to cut this morning got him all in at sun set cleaned the decks and start the try works no sail out all well so ends this day.

Tuesday 9th Jan:

Light wind all day under short sail trying out and stowing down all day, all well so ends this day.

B.B.

Wednesday 10th Jan:

Light wind under short sail raised sperm whales this morning lowered three boats down and kept one board to try out got two whales Row Boat and W. Boat, they were along side about four in the afternoon, we cool down two in the morning all well so ends this day.

W.B.

Thursday 11th Jan:

Strong wind, commence to cut at six this morning, had all cut in at ten am, cleaned the decks at two this afternoon made sail and running off saw one whale at sun set, shorten sail all well so ends this day.

Friday 12th Jan:

Strong wind this morning and rain, under short sail all day started the try works at ten this morning broke out meat and bread try out tonight so ends this day.

Saturday 13th Jan:

Strong wind, try out cool down down at six this morning made sail and running off at sun set took in the fore-top sail and came to the wind at night all well so ends this day.