

Thursday 7th March. 1842.

Fine weather all sail out raised sperm whales at noon and lowered the four boats. the Mate had one and got stowed so he had to come on board and no one hurt we got the whale along side at dark shorten sail and broke out the cutting gear all well so ends this day.

Friday 8th March.

Fine weather and light wind cutting all day had it all out in at dark and set the fore-sail one watch cleaning the decks all well so ends this day. this has been a hard day's work.

Saturday 9th March.

Strong wind today got the try work under way at daylight broke out meat and water and repairing the L. Boat trying out tonight all well so ends this day.

Sunday 10th March.

Strong wind under short sail all day trying out one finback and Land-insight, L. Boat done today. all well so ends this day.

Monday 11th March.

Strong wind under short sail cool down this morning and made sail saw a few finbacks so ends this day.

Tuesday 12th March.

Strong wind under short sail towing down all day we got all down at five o'clock, finbacks and one sail insight all well so ends this day.

Wednesday 13th March.

Strong wind all day under short sail on the wind wash ship all well so ends this day.

Thursday 14th March.

Strong wind today under short sail send down the main & royal gallant yard main-de-gallant yard broke out flour shorten sail at night so ends this day.

Friday 15th March 1842.

Today it blow quite hard sent down the main-royal yard we had some heavy rain squalls took in the main-top-sail at two o'clock scrub decks getting water, the ship leaks bad, so ends this day.

Saturday 16th March.

It blow very hard this morning and rain at the main-top-sail and the fore-top-sail at noon saw one finback took in the fore-top-sail at sun set all well so ends this day.

Sunday 17th March.

Strong wind all day under short sail finbacks in sight all well so ends this day.

Monday 18th March.

Strong wind all day shorten sail on the wind all well sent up the main-royal-yard so ends this day.

Tuesday 19th March.

Strong wind carrying sail all day and night caught some fish one finback insight so ends today.

Wednesday 20th March.

Fine weather and light wind all sail out sent up the main-de-gallant yard this morning carrying sail all day and night caught some fish one finback insight all well so ends this day.

Thursday 21st March.

Fine weather and light wind all sail out on the wind carrying sail all day and night land in sight all well so ends this day.

Friday 22nd March.

Fine weather and light wind all sail out on the wind