

Saturday 11th May.

Fine weather today in port sent the boat in for the captain he came off so got under way but we had no wind all well so ends this day.

Sunday 12th May.

Fine weather and light wind we got under way this morning about six o'clock one white ship went in to port today one laying off, some grampusses in sight one man sick put in two new boat-steerers.

Monday 13th May.

Fine weather all sail out running off all day and night one sail in sight broke out a barrel of fish.

Tuesday 14th May.

Fine weather all sail out bent the yit and main - Spencer saw grams and porpoises running off all day and night all well today.

Wednesday 15th May.

Fine weather all sail out run off all day and night one sail in sight Cooper is making a cutt for the Old Man took in the light sails tonight had one porpoise - all well today.

Thursday 16th May.

Fine weather all sail out on the wind raised the Barque John Dawson of New Bedford all game all day the captain had his wife on board, she had 1000 barrels of sperm oil she is going to Manilla and then Home, we had a good game saw some fin^{back} - shorten sail at dark, broke out meat this morning.