

|                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| April24th195th out          | 1832Lay at anchor at Karakoor Bay until the 24th and lost one more man by Dissectionat 4 P M took the anchor and stood out of the Bay with a pleasant breeze from South the Ship American, Charles Drien and the 2d in CompanyLat obs 19° 52' N | Wednesday2nd203th out | 1832through the day fine breeze from East Ship Rosalie in CompanyStoring S W by NLat obs 22, 12 NLong Chronometer 4 P M 160, 22 W    |
| 25th196th out                    | first part Calm at 6 P M took a light breeze from S W at 7 A M passed Takorawa to Ende the day                                                                                                                                                                            | Thursday3rd204th out  | through the day nothing remarkable but Parting with the Rosalie in a Rain StormWind later part S by WStoring W by N Lat 22° 31' N              |
| 26th197th out                    | at 4 P M came to anchor in 20 fathoms waterEmployed in taking of Water                                                                                                                                                                                               | Friday4th205th out    | through the day fine breeze from North Storing to the WestSpoke Ship Clarkson of NantucketLat obs 24° 19' NLong by Chronometer 162° 30' W |
| 27th198th out                    | Employed in taking of Water and Storing it down in the hold                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Saturday5th206th out  | Begins with fine breezes from S W Clarkson in sight at 10 AMlater part all most CalmLat obs 28° 16' NLong by Chronometer 162° 50' West    |
| 28th199th out                    | at 6 A M took the anchor for water in Company with Ship Rosalie of Waken 820 tons                                                                                                                                                                                         | Sunday6th207th out    | Begins with fine weather and light airs from NorthStoring to the WestwardShip Clarkson in CompanyLat obs 28° 12' N                        |
| 29th200th out                    | at 9 P M lay by main yard aback at 5 A M made sail at 7 came to anchor of the Port of Waken in 17 fathoms water                                                                                                                                                           | Monday7th208th out    | through the day all most Calm fine weather very swell from S W Lat obs 28° 38' NSaw Black pt.                                                       |
| May the 1stTuesday201th out | at Waken took my anchor in Company with Ship Rosalie                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                                                             | through the day pleasant weather and fine breezes from EastStoring S W by NLat 22° 34' N                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                 |