

March 1833

Sat 2^d Arrive the day fine weather
Spoke Ship's Chelsea &
Calidonia of New London
with 1000 & 1400 lbs of Spinn
Lat 17 miles North

Sunday 3^d fine weather Lat 15' South

Monday 4th fine weather 30' South

Tuesday 5th as day Preceding
Lat 15

Wednesday 6th Nothing worth Remarks
Lat 15 30' South

Thursday 7th Spoke Ship Recovery of London 10 months out
Dye barrels oil
Lat 15 22' South

Friday 8th fine weather Sun & Sail
Lat 15 12' South

Sat 9th fine weather Sun
Blackfish & Sail
Lat 15 31' South

Sunday 10th fine weather
One Sail in sight
Sun Blackfish Long
Lat 8' North 13 13 m

March 1833

Monday 11th fine weather Pleasant Breeze
Steering to the North
Lat 15 42 miles South

Tuesday 12th through the day fine weather
No Whales
Lat 15 23 miles North
Long 138 15 m

Wednesday 13th Begins with fine weather
Steering North
Small Prospect of Whales
I am Bound to Lat 5 N
Long 146 m of Sea
No Whales before
Lat 15 23 N of the Long 138 43 m

Thursday 14th Begins with pleasant weather
Wind East Steering North at 4 P m Sun & Breeze 4 miles to Windward, took Ship with out Success
Lat 15 3 N

Friday 15th Calms with Breeze
No Sea

Sat 16th Nothing Remarkable
But Calm weather
Lat 15 42 North

Sunday 17th Light airs from the West at Sun set Sun a wheel of Spinn Whales close to ship saw without success Lat 4 22