

June 1833

Monday 10th Through the day strong gails
from W by S steering to W
Made Sails at 10th
Lat 28° 30' North
Long at 4 P M of Chron.
179° 46' East

Tuesday 11th Begins with strong gails
from W by S steering to W at 4 P M were ship to Saut the word
Saw great numbers of Clams and Chalk
Lat 28° 31' N

Wednesday 12th Begins with strong gails from S by E at 8 A M found School of sperm whale going fast to East at 10th Saw all the boats in Chron
Lat 28° 33' N

Thursday 13th Begins with strong gails Boats in Chron of Whales at 1 P M fastened and killed one small one took her to Ship and cut in Day Ends with strong gails
from W by S steering to W
No obs

Friday 14th Through the day strong gails and heavy sea Employed Balling finished at 4 A M
Lat 30-31 N

June 1833

Saturday 15th Begins with most disagreeable weather strong gails from S by W steering to W here it is the middle of the month and only one small whale small prospect small hopes, I shall think I am well off if I can get the hove hole full this season but don't expect it Day Ends with fine weather
Wind East steering to W
Lat 29° 43' N
Long Chronom 176° 44' W

Sunday 16th Begins with fine weather
Wind East steering to W
Saw a sail to W
Lat 29° 30' N

Monday 17th Through the day fair weather
Wind from Westward Saw ship Observed Cutting in Day Ends in Lat 29° 30' N
Long 175° 19' Chronom

Tuesday 18th Begins with fine weather Wind W by S 2 ships in sight at 4 A M took ship Cortex of
P. M. Bedford 30 months out 175° 00' W
Lat 29° 22' N

Wednesday 19th Through the day fine weather
Wind S by E steering to W Saw 3 sails Lat 29° 22' N