

December

Wednesday 4th
Bergs with strong winds from ESE Caught 2 Perps for J-29 Lat 60° 29'
Longitude 146° 29'

Thursday 5th
Through the day with winds
from East to SE
Lat 60° 11' Long 146° 11'

Friday 6th
Through the day with strong winds
from East to SE
Lat 60° 2' Long 146° 2'

Saturday 7th Raining & squally with winds variable
No obs

Sunday 8th
Bergs with squally winds at 4 AM split the main wind &
main top of sail at noon
then threw the pieces after they were pulled up Sail. Back to 5-10 Lat

Monday 9th
Bergs with thick squally winds with rain
Winds from ESE to SE
Strong to East wind Small prospect of
whales at present here
No obs

Dec. 1833

Tuesday 10th
Through the day nothing remarkable. Wind ESE Sgt the 7:51 AM
Long Chronometer 146° 11' W

Wednesday 11th Bergs with present in the wind ESE Strong to Observe Of Whales make at them
I fear there is little ground of hope we shall observe what we most desire Lat 60° 11' W

Thursday 12th
Nothing remarkable but seeing a small school of whales and getting one of them
Lat 60° 11' W

Friday 13th
Wind from ESE to SE
Squally and Rain
Lat 60° 11' W

Saturday 14th
Through the day as day before Squally with Rain
No obs

Sunday 15th
More present in sight
Repairing foretop sail
Lat 60° 11' W
Long 146° 33' W