

Sept 1884

Mon 22	Nothing remarkable Wind S E by S Lat 6-41 N
Tue 23	Wind S by E shifted to Eastward Lat 4-10 N Long Chronom 145-49 W
Wed 24	Wind S E Shifting to S W Lat obs 4-06 N
Thurs 25	Fine weather Wind S E by S Lat obs 4-19 N Long Chronom 145-21 W
Fri 26	Fine weather Wind S E Lat obs 2-30 N Long Chronom 145-22 W
Sat 27	Wind S E Shifting South Lat obs 4-11 N Long Chronom 147-6 W
Sund 28	Light breeze from S E Shifting South by S Lat 1-01 South Long Chronom 148-1 W
Mon 29	Begins with fine weather S E Shifting South Lat obs 2-20 South
Tues 30	Clear weather Wind S E under the shore of Galapagos and Bent a new one Lat obs 3-49 South Long 148-44 W

October 1884

Wed 1	Begins with fine weather Wind East Shifting S E Small prospect of seeing or getting whales So it seems at present Lat 5-40 South
Thurs 2	Wind East N East Shifting S E Lat obs 8-32 South
Fri 3	Wind from East to S E Lat obs 9-40 South
Sat 4	Generally with some rain Wind S E Long 149-00 Lat obs 11-33 South
Sund 5	Nothing remarkable but Wind to S E
Mon 6	at 11 AM came to anchor In the harbor of Ensenada Lana a small second Capt. There from Maher with the English Consul On board As soon as the Lewis Islands