

Lip Parker

Friday 17th Took the anchor at 4 PM and stood out of the harbor with the wind from the harbor. Lat 23-31 South

Saturday 18th Began with light baffling winds and calms however the hope of having direct home Consals us for there some disappointment. Day Breeze with fine breeze from E S Lat 18-40 S

Sunday 19th Wind same as yesterday with fine all day but no advantage Lat 20-28 S

Monday 20th Wind and weather same as yesterday, did Leeks some more sick and other cases. Spoils a grain part of the pleasure of being bound home. Lat 21-40 Long 142-34 W

Tuesday 21st Wind from East to S E and strong under double reefed top sails. Lat 23-31 South

Wednesday 22nd Strong breeze from S E Lat 25-34 South

Edwards, New Bedford

Thursday 23rd Nothing remarkable from heavy winds and sick people we have more off duty 4 of the crew. Several Consals men. Lat 26-31 South

Friday 24th Began and ends with much the same winds and weather as yesterday sick people the same. Lat 28-30 South

Saturday 25th Wind at E S E with cold fog over the sky and prospect of a short passage doubtful mate sick of day. Did Leeks and passengers discontented. Officers grow weary my self with a bad cold all dispirited and all hoping for better times. Lat 29-29 South

Sunday 26th Wind E S E Lat 31-24 South

Monday 27th Wind E S E and cloudy. Began a new fore top sail. Lat 33-28 South. Several funbacks

Tuesday 28th Looking remarkable. Wind East. Lat 35-34 W Long 146-18 W