

Ship Pembroke

Tuesday Sept 20th

This day commenced pleasant with light winds from the N. W. steering for the Island of Macquarie spoke the Ship Juliana of Bremen bound to New Zealand at night luffed too off shore and took in sail

Wednesday Sept 21st

This day commenced pleasant with a strong breeze from the W. steering for the Island of Macquarie at 12 o'clock luffed too under its lee but blowing very fresh kept off for Tristan D. Acunha at night luffed too off shore and took in sail saw nothing

Thursday Sept 22nd

This day commenced squally with fresh gales from the N. W. staying too under close reefed maintop sail and foresail in the afternoon spoke the Barque Dove of C. Capt. Sealby no oil

Friday Sept 23rd

This day commenced squally with fresh gales from the N. W. staying too under close reefed maintop sail and fore spence and close reefed main saw nothing

Saturday Sept 24th

This day commenced pleasant with strong breezes from the N. W. steering for the wind under close reefed topsails and courses and one right aback was lost and disappeared at night took in sail Lat 36 47 S and Long 10 46 W

Sunday Sept 25th

This day commenced squally with strong breezes from the N. W. steering for the wind under close reefed topsails and courses and one right aback was lost at night took in sail Lat 37 22 S Long 1 54 W

Ship Pembroke

Monday Oct 3rd

This day commenced pleasant with strong breezes from the N. W. steering for the wind under close reefed topsails and courses and one right aback was lost at night took in sail saw nothing

Tuesday Nov 1st

This day commenced pleasant with strong breezes from the N. W. steering for the wind under close reefed topsails and courses and one right aback was lost at night took in sail saw nothing

Wednesday Nov 2nd

This day commenced squally with strong breezes from the N. W. steering for the wind under close reefed topsails and courses and one right aback was lost at night took in sail saw nothing

Lat 36 19 S Long 10 19 W

Thursday Nov 3rd

This day commenced squally with strong breezes from the N. W. steering for the wind under close reefed topsails and courses and one right aback was lost at night took in sail saw nothing

Lat 36 40 S Long 10 29 W