

Burgue Pembroke

Saturday Feb 18th

This day commenced storming with fresh breeze from the N.E. & flagging ~~the~~ two under close reefed maintopsail fore and aft & mainspruce saw nothing thus ends with fresh breezes from the N.W.

Lat. 44 29 Long. 51 58

Sunday Feb. 19th

This day commenced squally with fresh breeze from the S.W. Laying to windward close reefed maintopsail foresail main spancer. & foretopmast staysail at daylight started the topworks their ends equally with fresh breeze squally weather.

Lat 44.19 Long 52.19

Lat 44.19 S Long 52.00

Merida, Feb 20th

This day commenced pleasant with fresh breezes from the N. at daylight made sail broke out the main hatch & stowed down the oil stowed on the wind to the S. E. saw one ship saw no whales at night took in sail they ended pleasant Latt Long.

Tuesday. Feb. 21st

This day commences pleasant with fresh breezes from the N at daylight made sail steering on the wind to the W. saw several right whales lowered the boats but could not strike them make the ship fully down N. B Capt box 6 or 10 lb of oil thus ends day night took in sail at daylight took in sail

Bargue Sembroke

Wednesday, Feb 22nd

This day commences squally with a heavy gale from the W. & N. W. in the morning laying too under close reefed maintopsail main spencer & foretopmast staysail at 12 took the main topsail at 6 P. M. lost the starboard Quarter boat thus ends with a very violent gale saw one ship
Got no observation

Thursday Feb. 23rd

This day commences squalls blowing a heavy gale from the W. it is laying too under mainsprit & foretopmast staysail at 4 1/2 PM set the close reefed maintop sail in the afternoon the gale abated some saw one ship this ends blowing a heavy gale
Lat 43 30 S Long 52, 54 E

Friday Feb 24th

This day commences squally blowing fresh from the N. Hauling too under close reefed main topsail fore & main spencer & fore topmast staysail at good set the foresail & took in the fore spinnaker in the afternoon the wind hauled to N. W. W. blowing fresh wore round & took in the foresail this end with fresh breeze got no observation

Aug 28 no observation