

Friday Bark Petrel at Sea October 24 1892
 This day Breeze with strong winds from N.E. under all Topsails at night took in upper Topsails heading E.S.E.
 Middle part rain squalls Latter part strong winds from N.E. under Lower Topsails

Saturday Oct 22nd
 This day Breeze with strong winds from N.E. under lower Topsails Saw forebark middle part moderate winds Latter part squally weather & strong winds from East at 9:30 o'clock A.M. spoke B.K. Morning Star steering to the Westward & also we kept off steering W.S.W. under lower Topsails

Sunday Oct 23rd
 This day Breeze with very strong winds from East under lower main Topsails at 1 o'clock P.M. luffed to the wind on Port Tack B.K. Morning Star are in sight middle part moderate winds Latter part strong winds Bark Morning Star are in sight cloudy weather Lat 37° 25' South Long 50° 13' West

Monday Oct 24th
 This day Breeze with strong winds from Eastward heading N.E. by E. under lower Topsails at night took in lower Fore Topsail & were ship heading S by E middle part were ship heading N.E. by E under lower Topsails Latter part squally weather B.K. Morning Star are in sight to the Leeward

Lat 38° 00' South
 Long 50° 2' West

Tuesday

Wednesday Bark Petrel at Sea October 25 1892
 This day Breeze with fresh winds & rain squalls from E.S.E. under lower Topsails at night were ship heading S by E Break out bark Reef 5 Bble middle part winds very light Latter part strong breeze under all Topsails Emp.
 layed in breaking water at 9 o'clock A.M.
 spoke B.K. Morning Star Capt Reed went on Board Lat 36° 47' South
 Long 50° 24' West

Wednesday Oct 26th
 This day Breeze with fresh wind from N.E. & rain at night Shorten sails in comp. any with B.K. Morning Star middle part squally from West Latter part strong gale wind from West Lay to on Port Tack under lower main Topsail B.K. Morning Star are in sight to the Leeward

Thursday Oct 27th
 This day Breeze with strong gale winds from West under lower main Topsail Lay to on Port Tack at 7 o'clock P.M. adchose of Sperm Whales Breakwater near to the ship goin to S.W. middle part moderate wind from S.W. Latter part steering S.E. under lower Topsail at 9 o'clock A.M. came on to blow hard from S.W. took in fore Topsail & luffed to the wind on Port Tack

Friday Oct 28th
 This day Breeze with fresh gale winds from S.W. under lower main Topsail Lay to on Port Tack middle part heavy swell & blowing hard Latter part moderate gale steering S.E. by S under lower main Topsail one sail in sight goin Eastward Lat 36° 00' South Long 47° 57' East