

on the passage to New Bedford & Currying for sperm whales &c.
Remarks Friday June 13 1890

Bent
New Sails

Commenced with all sail Breeze and Pleasant from the E. & Baffling to E. N. E. under all variable sail blurring course. N. By. E. & E. employed Bending New sails from ard lower fore topsail that is been worn 14 months & the main stowed old ones in back that Bistaf them on side & latter Port Went out the same Bent New fore old Bistaf sail & fore sail. Broak out Coradze back Port fore sail in it then more sixteen fimes saw a sail blurring to N. N. W. latter Sat. 27. 20 North Port hit & Wind hauled to E. S. E. Long 48. 27 West

Saturday June 14
"Commenced with light Wind E. S. E. and Pleasant under all sail blurring N. E. By N. Noack and fresh water fore hole middle & latter Port Went out do Sat. 28. 15 North

Sunday June 15 Long 48. 41 West
"Commenced with a light E. S. E. Wind & Pleasant Weather under all sail blurring N. E. By N. at 2 Whale a M. Frank Smalley raised sperm whales quite small number of them going to the E. S. E. small & large & large toward all three Boats in Pursuit at 4.45 A.M.
Captained Starboard Boat struck small one turned up one small long way from the ship at 10.30 A.M. Whale song one side Chains on Shortest sail set Boats crew Watches middle do Weather latter do at 5. P.M. all hand employed cutting in at 5.30 P.M. Whale in started the work at 7.45. Now ship to E. S. E. set all possible sail
Sat. 29. 15 North

Monday June 16 Long 48. 50 West
"Commenced with light E. S. E. Wind and Pleasant on Port Jack under all possible sail heading S. W. & E. S. W. employed Baiting at 11 A.M. finished Baiting on Port Weather down sperm latter Port do at 7. P.M. Mr. Silvia 3rd officer Whales raised sperm whales going S. E. made all sail in Pursuit raised at 11 P.M. toward three Boats in Pursuit

By Mr.
Silvia

Sat. 29. 05 North
Long 48. 37 West

Back Matina New Bedford Captain Gile. P. Bloem master
Remarks Tuesday June 17 1890

Commenced with light E. S. E. Wind and Pleasant under all sail on spessilt. Tacks Boats down in Pursuit of sperm Whales at 12.15 A.M. Starboard Boat struck & killed along side at 2. at 3.45 Commenced to cut in said Whale at 5. A.M. said Whale all in at 10. 30 the watches Several sperm whales around the ship at the time middle and latter Port Went out the same at 4.30 Starboard the Watch to sail on S. P. Jack heading E. S. E. Wind

Sat. 29. 12 North
Wednesday June 18 Long 48. 27 West
"Commenced with light Breeze S. E. By S. and Pleasant Weather at 12.45 A.M. now ship to S. E. W. set topsail employed Baiting sperm whale middle & latter do Wind and Weather at 10.30 P.M. finished Baiting set all possible sail on Port Jack Sat. 28. 54 North and sail seen in sight blurring to the W. Long 48. 40 West

Thursday June 19
"Commenced with very light Wind S. E. By S. & Pleasant Weather at noon now ship to the E. By S. employed Shortest fore topmast halyard & under after light John Smolown hauled light sail courses up middle Port do. latter Port Went out do Wind now to the S. E. employed stowing sail fore hole

Sat. 29. 12 North
Friday June 20 Long 48. 11 West
"Commenced with very light Wind E. and Pleasant Weather at 3.45 A.M. finished stowing sail. Washed rails & c at 5.30 made ship to the S. & E. middle & latter Port the same day Wind S. E. Sat. 29. 12 N set all sail at 7.30 started West Long 48. 37 West

Saturday June 21
"Commenced very light air S. E. and Pleasant under all sail blurring. W. until sunset fufed to on S. P.
Jack hauled the sails to sails on the cap middle & latter do at 9.00 P.M. set all sail stowed S. By E.
Sat. 29. 42 North
Long 48. 40 West