

18th April

Tuesday 19: Very good weather the wind at S W

We saw 3 Humpbacks & one turtle

Wednesday 20: this Day the wind at W N W
With Rain and fog Lay to under main Staysail

Thursday 21: the Wind at N N W and Good weather Run S E. until three o'clock in the afternoon then Hove to under fore sail

Friday 22: the Wind at N N W fresh Breeze
We Lay to under main Staysail & for staysail

Saturday 23: the Wind at S W by N and Good Weather. So Nothing Remarkable today

Sunday 24: the Wind at W S W and Cloudy Run E N E. Rigid sail, Hove to under sail

Monday 25: First Part of this 24 Hours Small Wind at S W Latter Part of this 24 Hours

Wind at N by E hove to under main Staysail Tuesday 26: Hove to at N. At 5 o'clock

Put away our Cook Coppers We Lay to under main Staysail all well on board the Brig Polley

Wednesday 27: Fresh Winds at N by E
Lay to under fore sail & main Staysail

Latitude by observation 39-50 N
Days out

Thursday 28: the Wind at N. Small breeze Good weather

Friday 29: Wind at S E and Good Weather

Saturday 30: the first Part of this 24 hours Small winds at S E. Latter part of this 24 hours fresh Wind at S E by S

Sunday May 1: Fresh Winds at S E and Good Weather. all well on Board

Monday 2: Wind at E N E Small Breeze. With some Rain Latitude 42-02

Tuesday 3: Wind at S by E and foggy sail and Run S by E at 7 o'clock in the morning spoke with a Brig from America bound for Ireland. We killed a porpoise and saved him.

Wednesday 4: Wind at S E by E and Good Weather spoke with a Schooner from St. Johns bound for Cap Horn & S. W. Islands

Thursday 5: First Part of this 24 hours
Wind at S E and foggy Latter Part of this 24 hours
Wind at W N W Run E N E

Friday 6: Wind at N. Fresh Breeze Run
E N E Latitude 43-32 North

Saturday 7: this Day Small winds at S E and foggy all well on Board the Brig Polley Days out