

Thursday December 8

Lay at Anker in Prince-hoop-bay Capt. Freeman that Belonged to Harwich Elm Freeman Commander of a Schooner that bel to Nantucket. Cleland Commander Capt. Freeman and Capt. Cleland Com on board and went to Super With our Capt there Com on board of Capt. Freemans crew Ben. & John Ellis & Jediah Burgess and Edward Snow and Ben Nickerson Which told us News from home that our Friends was all Well

Friday 9 Lay at Anker in Prince-hoop-bay Set up our Rigger and all things Ready for to sail Capt. Freemans crew told of the Deaths of Capt Deacons Crowells Son & Capt. Atwoods Son and James Knowlises Daughter & Prince-yongs Son the Sun set hove up with Capt. Price for to go to Mount-Serrat and the Fort fired a shot at us Capt. Barwood and Capt. Price want a Shore and was forced to Day Shots for the shot so they Co on board and we went out

Saturday 10 In the morn we are of With Gordilope at 12 o'clock of With Mount-Serrat. at 2 o'clock of With Rock-Under. at Sun set we are of With News and St. Kitts at 3 o'clock. Got to Anker in Estotia

Sunday 11 Lay at Anker at Estotia the Cap
t. Ashore and sold 3 Barrels of oyle and 3 Barrel of raph Jenkins & Samuel. Albe Nathaniel George & Saml. Atkins

Monday 12 of December Lay at anker in Estotia Went on Shore and brought some Glasses and other things Which we wanted

Tuesday 13 At 6 o'clock in the morn Hove up & went out and ran between Seb and Estotia; at 9 o'clock see St. martins St. Barthomew At 1 o'clock After noon left light of the Land; Wind E. N. E. Run N. W. by E

Wednesday 14 Wind N. E. by E. Run N. W. by E At 3 o'clock Saw a Ship to the Northward Ste ing to the W. S. W.; Lat 24. 39. Samuel Atkins

Thursday 15 Fine Weather the Wind
E. S. E. Run N. W. by N; Lat 22. 9

Friday 16 First Part of this Day Wind at E. S. E. the Boat of top-sail Broke and split the top-sail to the Second Reef we bent the fore top-sail and again it and bent it again and unbent the jib and it and bent it again; this Day crossed the line; Latter Part of this Day the Wind S. W.; Run N. W. by N. no observation this Day

Saturday 17 Fresh Wind at N. E. Cap t. W. at 9 o'clock took in a Single Reef in the fore top-sail Lat 24. 9 Samuel Atkins