

^{ny} Friday 24 Aug. There 24 hours commences with light winds from the E & steering a long the ice to the N.E. middle and latter part foggy so ends

Saturday 25 There 24 hours commences with light winds and calms middle part employed in mending the spar so ends a thick fog

Sunday 26 There 24 hours
commences with light winds and calms saw several ships two a haying middle and latter
part foggy so ends

Monday 27 There 24 hours commences with light winds from the W & steering a long the ice to E middle part saw a whale a going back to the S.W. latter part fine no wind

Tuesday 28 There 24 hours commences with light winds and cloudy saw several ships a steering to the N.E. middle part fine latter part foggy

^{ny} Wednesday 29 There 24 hours commences with light winds from the N & steering E middle part spook the Daniel Wood and the Oliver Crocker our carpenter came on board from the D Wood where he had been ever since she got stuck in the ice

Thursday 30 of Aug. There 24 hours commences with light winds from the N. & steering S.W. in company with the several ships middle part fine latter part some snow saw nothing ^{ny} Friday 31 There 24 hours commences with light winds from the W & steering a long the ice to the N middle part fine latter part snow so ends

Saturday 1 of September There 24 hours commences with light winds from the W & steering to the N.W. saw a large number of ships bound to the E middle part fine saw the island of Balliol hercules is latter part fine

Lat 41.10 S 175.15

Sunday 2 There 24 hours
commences with light winds from the N spook the bark Sagoda with twelve whales this season middle part hercules island in sight dist ten miles latter part fine so ends

Monday 3 There 24 hours commences with light winds from the N & heading to the E saw a large number of ships middle and latter part the same

Tuesday 4 There 24 hours commences with light winds from the N and foggy a haying a back middle part the same