

Nov 8 1866 Thursday These 24 hours fine employed in shipping our bone on board of the Dutch bark D. J. Pope bound to N Bedford 20 ends

²⁴ Friday 9 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in mending our light sails middle and latter part fine

Saturday 10 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather discharged our knosks and bent the main top gamsail

Sunday 11 These 24 hours commenced with light S winds employed in mending our light sails middle part rainy

Monday 12 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in mending sails several ships arrived from the N

Tuesday 13 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in mending sails no arrivals 20 ends

²⁴ Wednesday 14 These 24 hours fine employed in mending sails The W. S. mail arrived two ships sailed

Thursday 15 These 24 hours fine employed in mending sails and ripping up the old fore sail 20 ends

²⁴ Friday 16 These 24 hours commenced with fine employed in painting ship cabin side 20 ends

November 17 Saturday These 24 hours commenced with strong trades employed in painting ship 20 ends

Sunday 18 These 24 hours commenced
with fine weather employed in mending the fore topsail 20 ends

Monday 19 These 24 hours commenced
with fine weather employed in mending sails and other gables the mail arrived

Tuesday 20 These 24 hours fine weather employed in setting up rigging 20 ends

Wednesday 21 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather middle part a man died on board very sudden ly with the dose of the King

Thursday 22 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather hauled a long side of the D. J. Pope to a lying a long side of the warfe

²⁴ Friday 23 These 24 hours fine weather commenced to discharge our oil hired ten men from the shore 20 ends

Saturday 24 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in discharging our oil middle and latter part fine

Sunday 25 These 24 hours commenced with fine weather ~~except~~ all hands on shore on liberty several ships arrived