

Nov 27 1866 Monday There 24 hours fine finished our oil and commenced to stow our ground tier no ends

Tuesday 28 There 24 hours commenced with strong trades employed in stowing our ground tier and filling with fresh water no ends

Wednesday 29 There 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in stowing our ground tier no ends

Thursday 30 There 24 hours fine hauled off from the "G. Pope" in the Steam no ends

Friday 31 There 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in stowing provisions and filling with fresh water

Saturday 1 of Dec There 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in stowing provisions no ends

Sunday 2 There 24 hours fine weather all hand on shore on liberty

Monday 3 There 24 hours commenced with fine weather several ships sailed employed in fitting ship

Tuesday 4 There 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in fitting by three men deserted leaving no two

Dec 5 1866 There 24 hours commenced with fine weather employed in getting of recruits no ends

Thursday 6 all ready for sea at middle part fine latter part the same

Friday 7 first part the pilot took our anchor with all on board except the capt and stood out making ten ships & lying of some on middle and latter part fine

Saturday 8 There 24 hours commenced with moderate trades & lying of anchor at 4 p.m. stood in at 5. the capt came of set all sail and steered to the "W" middle part calms at 4 p.m. strong trades & steering sharp by to the N no ends

Sunday 9 There 24 hours commenced with strong trades & steering sharp by to the N middle part clear latter part more wind took in light sail three sails in sight Lat 23° 45'

Monday 10 There 24 hours commenced with strong trades with squalls took in the fore and main sail and doubled reefed the topsails middle part clear latter part set the reefed main sail and reefed spanker one sail in sight

Lat 25° 12' by Tuesday 11 There 24 hours strong winds we doubled reefed topsails middle part more moderate set some sail latter part employed in setting up rigging

Lat 26° 45' by