

Thursday²⁷ of June

There 24 hours fine and light winds from the S E & heading in to the E middle and latter part fine

Friday²⁸ There 24 hours light winds and foggy in the in stowing home in the after hold latter part saw whales leaved but with ought success

Lat 68.10 S 167.30

Saturday²⁹ There 24 hours commences with light winds from the N & heading to the E saw a large number of ships no ends

Sunday³⁰ There 24 hours
commences with light winds from the E middle and latter part fine no ends

Monday¹ of July

There 24 hours commences with light winds from the E & heading to the W middle part calms latter part foggy no ends

Lat 68.10 S 167.40

Tuesday² There 24 hours fine and light winds from the N E & heading to the W saw a number of ships spook the Oliver crocker latter part the same

Lat 68.30 S 172.30