

Saturday Feb. 1th.

These 24 hours comes with fresh smoky trades, saw humpback cow and calf

Sunday Feb. 2th.

These 24 hours comes with strong smoky trades, nothing in sight

Monday Feb. 3th

These 24 hours first part strong smoky trades, saw a Stmr. bound to S.E. also raised a school of small whales got the boats ready and lowered. St. boat got fast, but after a while the whale run like the devil and the iron came out, the boat kept chasing till sun set but couldn't get chance, at night shortened sails; latter part foggy weather and fresh breeze sighted a sailing vessel, broke out for bread
Lat. 18:00
Long 27:10

Tuesday Feb. 4th.

These 24 hours foggy weather and fresh trades

Wednesday Feb. 5th.

These 24 hours fresh smoky trades, ship cruising saw a whaling Schr. boiling

Thursday Feb. 6th.

This day comes with light smoky trades saw a school of black fish.

Friday Feb. 7th.

This day comes with pleasant smoky trades, ship cruising nothing in sight

Saturday Feb. 8th.

This day comes with light smoky trades watch employed cleaning up the windlass and paint them

Sunday Feb. 9th.

This day comes with light smoky trades, ship cruising everything set

Monday Feb. 10th.

This day first part pleasant weather all sails set cruising; latter part light trades, raised a large white water off lee beam after while caught sight of the whales spouting got the boats ready and lowered. St. Boat got fast in a small whale, and a big one came up long side of her and got tangle up with line parted the line from the small one and made herself fast, then the St. Boat got fast in her, West Boat chasing
Lat 18-25 Long 26-17

St. Boat 110 lbs.