

Thursday Feb. 20th.

These 24 hours strong and squally trades sighted the Island of St. Antonio, and also sighted several sailing vessels

Friday Feb. 21th.

These 24 hours comes with strong trades Capt. went shore in St. Vincent to get letters, and returned aboard. Manoel Jose Silva ran away, and shipped Domingo George

Saturday Feb. 22th.

These 24 hours first part strong trades, anchored in Terrafal St. Antonio. Latter part employed pumping out salt water and getting fresh water. Schr. Sarah W. Hunt anchored here

Sunday Feb. 23th.

In Port, first part employed getting water, latter part St. watch went shore and returned

Monday Feb. 24th.

In Port first part Port watch went shore on ran and returned; latter part employed getting water, found two places where the vessel was leaking but still she keeps leaking.

Tuesday Feb. 25th.

In Port employed getting water. Schr. Sarah W. Hunt went to sea got the small boat stored on ship and a man a little hurt

Wednesday Feb. 26th.

These 24 hours first part got the vessel ready for sea; latter part got under weigh and went to sea saw black fish

Thursday Feb. 27th.

These 24 hours comes with very light airs all sails set working to Northward saw black fish

Friday Feb. 28th.

These 24 hours comes with very light airs. The Island of St. Antonio in sight, saw whales breaching long ways to windward and also saw finbacks, & two sailing vessels, broke out the slop chest

Saturday Feb. 29th.

These 24 hours comes with light breeze and squally weather saw porpoises

Sunday Mar. 1th

These 24 hours comes with pleasant weather saw porpoises

Lat 19.00
Long 27.09

Monday Mar. 2th.

These 24 hours comes with pleasant weather all sails set cruising sighted a whaling Schr. took the stern boat on deck to repair