

4
Remarks on Board of the Bark

Monday June the 5. 1843
All these 24 hours fresh winds from the S^W accompanied with light squalls of rain & one sail in air steering to the Eastward with all sail set &c &c &c &c these 24 hours &c

Tuesday June the 6
The first part of these 24 hours paper with fresh winds and cloudy from the S^W steering S & the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c middle & latter part paper with fresh winds & light squalls of rain & from the S^W saw a large ship steering to the Eastward under a press of canvas &c &c these 24 hours

Wednesday June the 7. 1843
These 24 hours commenced with light winds and clear weather from the S^W course S & by S the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c the middle latter part paper with fresh winds and cloudy weather from the S^W course S & S & &c &c these 24 hours Lat 33° 13' Long 86° 34'

Thursday June the 8 These 24 hours commenced with moderate breezes & accompanied with light squalls of rain from the Westward steering to the S & S & the middle part paper with light winds & cloudy latter part paper with fresh winds and rain from the westward course S & by S the watch employed in ship's duty &c &c these 24 hours

5
President of West Point Capt Simons

Friday June the 9 The first part of these 24 hours paper with light winds & rain from the westward course S & S & at 4 P^M spoke Bark Igneaux of Boston Capt Rupert 12 months out 150 bls of sperm oil & Capt R came on board and spent a short time & got some late papers &c at 11 clock and hauled on a wind heading to the Northward under short sail middle part paper with light winds accompanied with light rain latter part paper with moderate breezes and clear weather from the S^W course S & the watch employed in ship's duty &c &c &c these 24 hours

Saturday June the 10 These 24 hours commenced with moderate breezes and clear weather from the S^W course S & at 4 P^M saw two ships steering to the Southward & Eastward at 7 P^M took in sail & hauled on a wind heading to the Southward latter part paper with fresh winds the ship under easy sail at 12 M. arrived Lat 33° 10' Long 86° 34' &c &c these 24 hours

Sunday June the 11 The first part of these 24 hours paper with fresh winds from the S^W lapping tow under easy sail heading to the Southward and Eastward the latter part paper with moderate breezes & pleasant weather from the S^W steering to the Southward and Eastward with all sail set &c &c &c these 24 hours